DETAILS:

AT REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA

Mr. OTTO TALLENT, City Editor, Redwood City Tribune, stated that he knew that the applicant was a member of the Board of Directors of the Redwood City Council for Civic Unity in 1947. Mr. TALLENT said that he discussed this matter with the applicant at some length and concluded that the applicant had affiliated with this organization for the purpose of civic betterment and reiterated that he knew of nothing that would reflect against the applicant's loyalty to the United States. Mr. TALLENT pointed out that the Redwood City Council for Civic Unity has among its members a number of reputable persons in the community whom he does not consider disloyal. Mr. TALLENT pointed out that he is not in accord with the activities of this organization in that it deals frequently with controversial matters in the community. However, Mr. TALLENT said that he does not consider the Council to be a subversive organization, nor would he consider membership in the Council an act which should reflect against the loyalty of an individual. Mr. TALLENT further pointed out that it is his opinion that the applicant is no longer affiliated with the Council and further that the applicant did not take an active part in the Council since he pointed out to ALLAN that, as a matter of policy, the Redwood City Tribune did not wish to have its employees members of any organization that might be considered controversial or bring criticism upon the newspaper.

Mr. JAMES WOOD, Editor, Redwood City Tribune, concurred completely with the information furnished by Mr. TALLENT.

Mr. NED BUTLER, Executive Vice President, Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, said that he has only a slight recollection of having had business contacts with the applicant when ALLAN was a reporter on the Redwood City Tribune. He said that he knows nothing that would reflect on the applicant's loyalty to the United States.

Mr. BUTLER said that he has followed the activities of the Redwood City Council for Civic Unity since its formation here in 1946, and does not recall that the applicant had taken any part in their activities.

San Francisco T-2, of known reliability, who has some knowledge of certain phases of Communist activities in Northern California, stated that JONATHAN ROWELL and ELIZABETH EISENBERG were active in forming the Redwood City Council for Civic Unity, and that they are presently active in the administration of this organization. T-2 stated that both ROWELL and EISENBERG are anti-Communist and that the efforts of the Communist Party to control the Redwood City Council for Civic Unity were ineffective.

San Francisco T-3, of known reliability, who has some knowledge of certain aspects of Communist activities in Northern California, said that ELIZABETH EISENBERG is very anti-Communist, and that JONATHAN ROWELL is very resentful of the efforts of the Communists to take over control of the Redwood City Council for Civic Unity. T-3 pointed out that EISENBERG and ROWELL are active in the leadership of this organization.

Neither T-2 or T-3 provided any information concerning the applicant.

It is noted that the Communist Party has been declared by the Attorney General to be within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

On August 15, 1950, Mr. N. HERBST, 1525 Mission Street, San Francisco, provided a letterhead for the Redwood City Council for Civic Unity which lists the officers and Board of Directors for this organization. It is noted that the applicant's name does not appear as a member of the Board of Directors.

On January 24, 1951, the Palo Alto Times carried an article reporting the results of the election of officers for this organization for 1951, and it is noted that the applicant's name does not appear as having been elected to any office.

The applicant was arrested Sunday, March 2, 1941, at 2:15 a.m. at Third and Folsom Streets in San Francisco along with one J. R. SMITH for violation of Section #647, Penal Code ($1000 vagrancy). ARTHUR B. EMMONS, Officer in Charge of Korean Affairs, Department of State, advised Special Agent WILLIAM H. BREWSTER that he became acquainted with applicant in 1947 at Madrid, Spain, at which time he was attached to the American Embassy in Madrid and the applicant was representing Associated Press there. He explained his contact with applicant was both professional and social and declared applicant was very cooperative with and helpful to the American Embassy. He noted that many were the opportunities of the applicant to observe the political maneuvers of the Spanish Regime and on numerous occasions the applicant reported these maneuvers to the Embassy before they were known to the public at large. EMMONS observed that these confidences were very helpful to the American Embassy. He continued that applicant got along well with member of the United States Diplomatic Corps, his press colleagues, and members of the American colony in Spain and enjoyed an excellent reputation among each of these groups.

He noted that applicant's attitude toward the Spanish Regime was typical of the attitude of the American Press, that is, critical. He added, however, the applicant's criticism was more conservative than the average news correspondent. He said that applicant was more of an objective news reporter than a subjective one and as a consequence, to EMMONS' knowledge, the applicant never had a conflict with the Spanish Regime. At this point EMMONS observed that many American newspapermen got in "jams" with the Spanish Regime over unfavorable news releases.

He stated that he would describe applicant as moderate, deliberate, and sober in his political approach and beliefs. He states that the applicant was personally very agreeable to him and impressed him as a person of good judgment, integrity, and initiative; further that he knows nothing whatsoever of a derogatory nature concerning applicant and added he has never heard anything which would reflect unfavorably on applicant's or his wife's character, loyalty, or reputation. He described applicant's wife as a person who is retiring by nature but well thought of by all who meet her, stating applicant's wife comes from California. He went on to say that applicant's associates in Spain were necessarily members of the United States Embassy and the Spanish Diplomatic Corps as these groups were the source of many of his news items. He advised he is not acquainted with any organization to which the applicant belongs and concluded by stating that he would not hesitate to recommend applicant for a position of trust.

and Mrs. BALDWIN are reputable people. He said that he is not personally acquainted with the applicant but said that he vaguely recalls him and has never heard anything unfavorable concerning him.

Mrs. H. M. LORBER, RED, Woodside, California, said that she has lived in this community for many years and is not personally acquainted with the applicant. She pointed out that while she is the nearest neighbor, the applicant's home is situated more than a half mile from her home in the woods. She said that Mr. and Mrs. JOHN G. BALDWIN bear a good reputation in the community and that she has never heard any disloyal information either about the applicant or his parents.

EMPLOYMENT

Mr. E. RAY LOVETT, President of Peninsula Newspapers Incorporated, 310 High Street, Palo Alto, California, advised that the Redwood City Tribune is managed by this company, as is the Burlingame Advance and the Palo Alto Times. He said that he has a vague recollection of the applicant and said that he knows nothing unfavorable concerning him. He suggested in addition to the persons previously interviewed at the Redwood City Tribune that any member of the editorial staff of the Burlingame Advance or the Palo Alto Times might recall the applicant; however, he pointed out that the applicant was employed by the Redwood City Tribune for only six months.

Mr. GEORGE MC QUEEN, Publisher, Burlingame Advance, Burlingame, California, said that he has only a vague recollection of the applicant and remembered nothing that would reflect unfavorably on his character, loyalty, or associates.

Mr. TED WIGGETT, Editor, Burlingame Advance; Mr. GENE BISHOP, Publisher, Palo Alto Times; Miss DOROTHY COGSWELL, Editor, Palo Alto Times, and former Stanford graduate; and Mr. MONTY LINDSAY, reporter, Palo Alto Times, and formerly of the Redwood City Tribune; all furnished information similar to that provided by Mr. GEORGE MC QUEEN.
